You are invited to join us for a weekend of weaving to break the Cabin Fever of midwest winter.

Registration fee is $25 per day. Lunches are available or you may bring your own.

With it being the first year at this location, you may want to bring a task light as we are unsure of our night lighting. There are many windows for natural lighting during the day. We will have drop cords and surge protectors. This location is closed for the winter, so we will be the only people in the facility.
